

Danny Boy

Traditional
Melodie Rory Dall O'Cathain zugeschrieben

1. Oh, Dan-ny boy, the pipes, the pipes are cal - ling, from glen to glen and down the mountain side.

The summer's gone and all the ro - ses fal - ling. 'Tis you 'tis you must go and I must bide.

But come ye back when summer's in the mea - dow, or when the val - ley's hushed and white with snow.

'Tis I'll be there in sunshine or in sha - dow. Oh Dan-ny boy, oh Dan-ny boy, I love you so.

2. And when you come all the flowers are dying, if I am dead as dead as well may be,
ye'll come and find a place where I am lying,
and kneel and say an Ave there for me.
And shall I hear thought soft your tread above me,
and all my grave shall warmer, sweeter, be,
for you will bend and tell me that you love me,
and I shall live in peace until you come to me.
